The DIMMER VIEW

Supervisors Waste Effort

A few weeks back an editorial in this column suggested a move to increase the membership of the County Board of Supervisors from five to fifteen.

It was pointed out that the county had grown so fast that five people could not properly serve such a burgeoning jurisdiction.

Dissatisfaction appeared to be cropping up everywhere. Supervisors had spread themselves so thin trying to keep up with the problems that they had trouble even visiting the scene of the problems, much less solving them.

There was the situation of the older communities against the new ones, battling for their Supervisor's attention. Even from the outside it was clear that the total problems of the new and the old alike had outgrown the manpower ability of the Board to cope with them.

This column suggested that James Dorman, a young attorney with offices in this area, be considered for appointment to the Board in the event of the Board's expansion. He has served on the local Planning Association, he serves now on the L.G. School Board and on the L.G. Fire District Board of Directors.

Frank Curran, the former mayor of the City of San Diego, chairman of the Citizens Committee for the Review of the San Diego Charter under which an expanded Board of Supervisors could come into being, agreed with the position taken by the editorial.

But, he explained carefully, "I can only recommend it to my committee — and then be guided by their decision."

A fly was dropped into the ointment last week when Supervisor Jack Walsh, one of the outspoken members of the Board, addressed a communication to Mr. Curran, setting forth one of the obstacles that appears to slow down a satisfactory solution for coming to grips with the County Charter problems.

The fly, according to Walsh, was one of the Supervisors. The supervisor, according to Walsh, was Jim Bear.

Better yet, let's let Jack Walsh tell it as he told it to Mr. Curran.

"On Jan. 16, 1974, the Board of Supervisors moved to charge the Ad Hoc Charter Review Committee 'to review the County Charter as to the number of members on and the way in which members are elected to the Board of Supervisors.'

'"Supervisor Bear voted for this motion as did all those Supervisors present. The Board of Supervisors is committed on record to placing your recommendations on the November ballot.

"Now I find that Mr. Bear has taken matters into his own hands and is mounting a petition drive to place a Board of Supervisors expansion program on the ballot irrespective of your recommendation.

"I am astounded at this insensitive attitude. It embarrasses me before your citizens committee that a fellow Supervisor can have this deplorable double standard. For Mr. Bear, on the one hand, publicly objects to the recall petition which seeks to remove him from office for violation of his public trust because he is, at the same time, standing for reelection. And yet now, he scornfully attempts, in effect, to recall your committee. This hypocritical behavior appears to me to be an outright conflict of ethics.

"I am writing you to urge that your committee disregard Mr. Bear's political stunt and continue seeking unbiased input from the community.

signed

Jack Walsh."

The points in reproducing the letter are twofold. One, it's in the finest tradition of political letterwriting. It sounds as though it says more than it does. And it also shows some of the wheelspinning that goes on amongst the Board sapping off energy which might be better used if directed toward the people the board serves.

Firing the Campus Newspaper Editor Was a Foolish Reaction

The editor of the Triton Times, the campus newspaper at UCSD, was fired last week by Dr. William D. McElroy, chancellor of the college.

He was fired because the newspaper published an April Fool issue in which outlandish stories were printed.

The editor, senior David Buchbinder, a Muir college generaal literature major, had allowed a story to be printed in which is was said that William Shockley had been named the new provost of UCSD's Third College. Shockley is a physicist at Stanford who became nationally controversial when he theorized that there is indeed an intellectual difference between the races. UCSD's Third College is attended by many black students.

His dismissal came after he was accuseed of being insensitive and the articles described as derogatory and distasteful. Some who read it saw it only as satire.

Many newspapers carry an April Fool yarn or two on April 1st. The Wall Street Journal was internationally acclaimed for years for their April Fool issue.

Dr. McElroy is wrong in firing his editor and not because freedom of the press is being seduced, either. He's wrong because colleges have been known to have been wrong to an even greater extent.

Where was Dr. McElroy when colleges condoned the use of four-letter obscenities to be used on placards?

Or when Communists were invited to use the campus as a platform when American soldiers were being killed by Communists in Viet Nam?

Or when streakers are only restrained when civilian police are present to charge these fools with indecent exposure.?

Or when college professors and students alike obstructed law officials by placing barricades on the Santa Fe tracks in the north county?

Or when some colleges allowed sorority houses — and frat houses, too — to become coed?

These items are general things, not intended to arouse recriminations any more than editor Buchbinder's material was intended to create discrimination.

It is true that a campus newspaper can be useful in dissemination of vital college information. It can also be a strong fountainhead of informational feedback from the student body.

It seems that the publication has lost much of its useful-

DEMOLITION — The Sunkist Inn is one of six Lemon Grove businesses that will be demolished later this month to make way for the new Lemon Tree shopping center scheduled for completion this Autumn.

New Shopping Center To Replace 6 Broadway Shops

A new shopping center, to be called the Lemon Tree Center, will replace six Lemon Grove businesses on Broadway and Golden Scheduled for demolition in the near future.

The Lemon Tree Center will occupy 62,000 feet, set back on Golden facing Broadway, to allow for adequate parking. Several businesses are tentatively scheduled to open in the complex.

An express market, national shoe store, beauty salon and two of the former tenants are scheduled to open shop in late October when the center is completed, Burt Ball leasing supervisor said.

A fast food restaurant will also be located in the complex but will be completed earlier.

The Lemon Tree Center was designed by Ed Huxley, an architect in Ocean Beach. It will be built by Rancho Plaza Associates. The property is owned by Mrs. Amelia Mangano of Lemon Grove.

The center will use "lots of natural wood" and have several trees, according to Ball.

The businesses slated to be torn down include: Hoss Refrigeration, AMC Furniture House, Lemon Grove T.V. Dairy Queen, and the Sunkist Inn.

Several of these businesses have relocated throughout the Lemon Grove business area.

HOT MEALS — Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lange of Pacific ave., in Lemon Grove seem to be enjoying the luncheon served at the Lemon Grove Community Center. The meals are served by the Hot Meals for Senior Citizens program.

The program which got its start Monday, serves the hot meal from 11 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. On the first day there were over ninety people served.

Many of the people served had favorable reactions. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gandenberger of Spring Valley said, "A wonderful program with plenty to eat and excellent fellowship."

"This is a government sponsored project. It is a boon to many seniors unable to fend for themselves. I hope the program continues," Ken Ward of Lemon Grove said.

Sid Butts of Lemon Grove, "I just learned of it recently. Many seniors are unable to exist on their retirement so this is a big help."

The cost of the meal is 50¢ for those who can afford it. Mrs. Linda Pfleuger, project site manager said that there are plans to set up a lounge in the Center for those people who wish to socialize before the lunch.

Mrs. Pflueger said that volunteers are still needed to help with the program. For more information call the Center at 460-0430.

Tighter Land Use Law For Commercial Areas

Two tighter admendments to the Zoning Ordinance are now in effect in San Diego County, Bruce Warren, County Planning Director said this week.

The first will no longer permit one-, and two-family dwelling units in commercial zones except in conjunction with a permitted business. This amendment also requires a special use permit for multiple family dwellings.

"Dwelling units break the continuity of the business zone and inhibit interaction between businesses," Warren said. Such dwelling are also subject to noise and congestion which often results in a less than desirable residential environment."

The second amendment increases the minimum lot area required for each multiple family dwelling unit in the R-3 Residential Zone from 1,000 square feet to 1,500 square feet. This has the effect of reducing the maximum density of the R-3 Zone to 29 dwelling units an acre.

"Prior to this amendment, up to 43 units per acre were permitted although, practically speaking, it was nearly impossible to reach this maximum figure and still comply with the two-story height limitation and off-street parking and setback requirements," Warren said. "This often resulted in poor project design in attempts to attain as close to that maximum as possible."

Both amendments were approved by the County Planning Commission and the Board of Supervisors.

Dawson Wins W.H.O. Award

James E. Dawson, a teacher at the San Miguel Elementary School and a member of the Lemon Grove Teachers Association, an affiliate of the California Tea California Teachers Association, will be honored by the San Diego County Teachers Association at the ninth annual WHO Awards dinner-program on Saturday, April 27, for outstanding contributions to the teaching profession. WHO is an acronym for "We Honor Ours."

Dawson

During ceremonies in the Olympus Room of the Atlantis Restaurant the 16 recipients from 15 teachers associations in San Diego County will receive the owl trophy and a certificate of award in recognition of their work to improve education. To date, SDCTA has honored 198 members for contributing their time and talent to the advancement of teaching through leadership and service. Nominations for the award are made annually by teachers' associations throughout San Diego County.

Burn Victim Dies

Sandra Kay Bertel, 21, died Saturday in University Hospital as a result of burns she suffered in a car accident March 28.

Mrs. Bertel of 984 Peach st., Spring Valley, received the burns when her vehicle collided with another vehicle driven by Benton Spell, 19, of Spring Valley.

A hospital spokesman said she suffered second-and-third degree burns over 66 per cent of her body.

She is survived by her husband, Glennon.

SV Group Petitions Transit for Service

Mobile home park residents in Spring Valley have started circulating a petition asking for an extension of San Diego Transit service to four trailer parks.

Jim Ward, a resident of Lakeview Manor Mobile Lodge and head of the drive, said the group is seeking an additional 3½ miles of service so that the line can reach Trace rd. where the four parks are located.

The bus service extension, according to Ward would benefit the senior citizens in the area. He said he hoped to collect 3,000 signatures and present them to the transit company by the first week in May.

Gem and Mineral Show Booked for Helix High

The Tourmaline Gem and Mineral Society has set May 4-5 for their 25th Annual Gem and Mineral Show at Helix High School, in La Mesa.

Ferris Jones has been appointed this year's show chairman. The show's theme is "Silver Jubilee". The show is free to the public as a service to the people of San Diego County.

Miss Lemon Grove Contest Needs Girls

Pretty girls, aged 17-21 are needed to compete for the title of Miss Lemon Grove.

Applicants will compete for for the title on May 4 at the Lemon Grove Junior High school. Winner will represent the community in the Fairest of the Fair competition in June.

The local contest is sponsored by the L.G. Rotary club. John Factor, Rotary club contest chairman said that four applicants had registered so far.

Natural History Museum

A unique week-long garden tour of "Canyon Trails", the hillside home of Helen Witham, the San Diego Natural History Museum's Associate Curator of Botany, will start Sunday at 5175 68th st.

The yearly event, a tour of the minature botanic garden of native California plants, will be open to the public daily from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. for the week of April 21 through 28.

SV Clean-up Drive Lunch Nets Support

100 percent cooperation was pledged by the 16 organizations that attended a special luncheon to kick-off the 1974 "Spring Valley Beautiful" clean-up campaign held at the Ox Bow Inn, April 10.

The representtaives of the various Spring Valley service clubs agreed to help and pass the word about the campaign scheduled for May 18-19. Campaign chairman is Lee Green.

Attending the luncheon were: Mrs. Raydene Shepard, Chamber of Commerce president; Lee Green, S.V. Kiwanis Club; Naomi Marshall, Chamber secretary; Dick Tazelaar, Businessmen's Association of South Spring Valley and Sharon Meyer, Miss Spring Valley.

Jim Gorman, executive director of "War Against Litter" for the City and County of San Diego; Larry Hastings of Thomas and Sons Disposal; Bob Sutton of Sani-Tainer Disposal; Bill Freeman, Boy Scouts of America; Helen Slusha, Camp Fire Girls and Harl Brown of La Mesa - S.V. School District, were also on hand.

Jim Anderson attended the luncheon as a representative of the California Highway Patrol. He stated that the Department has a new program for dealing with old "junk" cars. The owner is given 30 days to remove the vehicle.

Pick-up points scheduled for the campaign were also outlined at the meeting. They include: Troy st. and Bancroft dr., Kenwood and Bancroft drs., Mayfair parking lot at Campo and Kenwood, the 7-11 store at Granada and Campo, Gillespie and Jamacha rd., S.V. Shopping Center behind Bank of America, Big T Shopping Center at Elkelton and Jamacha rd., Farm Market at Campo and Bancroft and La Presa Plaza Center at Grand ave. and Jamacha blvd.

Chairman Lee Green said it is important that the committee not only have the cooperation of the groups represented at the meetings, but the general public as well, he pointed out.

Supervisors Consider Sweetwater Way Plan

The Board of Supervisors have scheduled a public hearing to consider a recommendation to close Sweetwater Way to through traffic between Broadway and Sweetwater rd., in Lemon Grove.

The entrance to Sweetwater Way is on the south side of Broadway opposite St. John of the Cross Catholic Church.

Any interested person may attend and speak at the hearing which will be held Wednesday at 2 p.m. in room 310, County Administration Center, 1600 Pacific Highway, San Diego.

May Fiesta Set For SD Old Town

The color and excitement of an Early California celebration will be recreated in the fifth annual Fiesta de la Primavera May 16-19 in San Diego's Old Town.

The city's cultural heritage will be portrayed by strolling mariachis, Spanish and Mexican dancers, and banjo and fiddle contests.

Setting for the affair will be Old Town State Historical Park, where work has been under way for several years in restoring many of the buildings deriving from the first Spanish settlement in California, established by Father Junipero Serra and Captain Gaspar de Portola in 1769.

Because of heavy attendance last year, the fiesta had been expanded from three days to four, in spite of the gas shortage, according to Richard B. Yale, direrctor.

Climax of the four-day festivities will be a California ranoho-style Buffalo Barbecue.

Tours of points of interest, including the Old Adobe Chapel, Casa Bandini and the Old Spanish Cemetery will be provided by rangers of the State Historical Park and by representatives of the Historical Shrine Foundation.

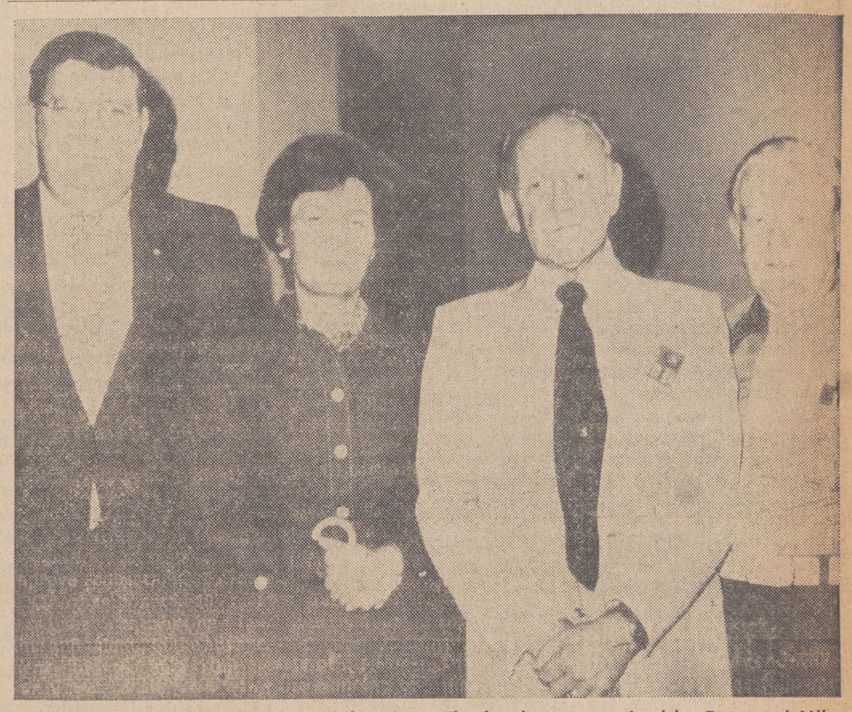
$75 Damage to Burning Car

A burning car at 7882 Broadway was extinguished by Lemon Grove firemen Saturday morning. The vehicle suffered an estimated $75 of damage.

Earlier in the week a young girl who had been injured was brought to the station by her mother. The firemen administered first aid and she was allowed to go home.

The emergency crew answered a call on Friday to 1613 Woodrow where a 55-year-old man was suffering chest pains. He was given oxygen and sent to a hospital.

In all, the LG Fire Department answered one fire call and two first aid calls during the week of April 8-15.



SERVICE — Bob Guest, president of the Lemon Grove Rotary Club (left); Ilse Hanning of the LG Soroptimists; Elmer Ringeisen, Kiwanis Club incoming president and Les Cleer, LG Lions Club president all joined together for a joint service club luncheon held at Skyline Wesleyan Church, Monday.

The luncheon, organized by Reverend Mike Maxson of the Kiwanis Club was followed by a brief business meeting. A special entertainment feature for the group was a performance by the "Re'Generation Singers", a nationally known chorus that performs religious and patriotic numbers.

SPRING VALLEY PARK — Don Bland (standing) points out the area for this Sunday's Dedication Ceremony of the S.V. Community Park to Floyd Evans a member of the SV Park and Recreation Citizens Advisory Board. Bland, the committee chairman said that an Easter egg hunt for children up to the 6th grade will begin at 1 p.m. The ceremony will follow at 3.
Honored guests at the ceremony include: Assemblyman Wadie P. Deddeh, Supervisor Richard Brown, Lloyd Lowery from the County Park and Recreation Department and Skip Fenn, Assistant Director of La Mesa Recreation Department. Entertainment at the Dedication will be provided by the Mt. Miguel High School Stage Band, Ensemble and Barber Shop Quartet. The La Presa Junior High School Ensemble and the County Dixieland Band will also be present.

Musicals Scheduled By 1974 'Starlight'

"Starlight" looks promising for theatre-goers again this year.

If plans jell, three musicals chosen by the Starlight Committee will be staged in Balboa Bowl in Balboa Park.

The three shows are "Fiddler on the Roof", "Student Prince" and "Camelot".

Full season of shows in the Bowl were curtailed because of the noise of jet planes approaching Lindbergh Field for landings. Starlight shows have since been held in Civic Theatre and at USIU.

The season opens July 12 with "Fiddler"; followed by "Student Prince" Aug. 1-11, and closing with "Camelot Aug. 12-Sept. 1.

General auditions will be held on April 26, 27, 28, 6:30-11:30 p.m. in the auditorium of Roosevelt Junior high school, 3326 Park blvd.

Talent applicants will be auditioned there July 11-14 and 18-21. Other audition dates will be announced.

Wild Animal Park Adds Two New Show-stoppers

Show-stealing will become a perfected art this spring and summer at the San Diego Wild Animal Park, when a year-old cougar and an appaloosa-colored horse share top-billing with Carol and Jean elephants in the new Elephant Revue.

On April 6 and through Easter, shows were offered free to visitors at 11:30 a.m., 1:30 and 2:30 p.m. in the Park's amphitheater. After Easter, shows were set for 11:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. weekdays and 11:30 a.m., 1:30 and 2:30 p.m. on weekends until summer, when a three-shows-a-day schedule will resume.

Stroke Information Forum at Balboa Park

A public information forum on stroke will be held from 1 to 3 p.m., Sunday, in the Barcelona Room of the Casa Del Prado, Balboa Park, San Diego.

The meeting is sponsored by the San Diego County Heart Association, the Woman's Auxiliary of the San Diego County Medical Society, the Easter Seal Society of San Diego County and the San Diego Park and Recreation Department.

A comedy film on diet, "Eat To our Heart's Content," narrated by Tony Randall, will be shown. Stroke clubs from various areas throughout the county will make presentations. The forum is free, and the public is invited to attend, particularly stroke victims and their families.

ON THE PERI-METER

I suppose you're dating yourself when you remember construction sites surrounded by high wooden fences to protect us. Then, they started putting little glass windows in the fences for "Sidewalk Superintendents."

Now, according to Ed Neubauer, proprietor of Spring Valley's Plant Land, California Federal Savings has a fence surrounding their new bank building with gaily painted Dr. Seuss like characters.

"The capper," claims Ed, "is a psychedelic rhino on a skate board that bears the inscription: 'Streakers repent, thy end is in sight'."

A Chula Vista farmer, disturbed by watermelon thieves, posted this sign in the middle of the patch: "ONE MELON HAS BEEN POISONED — BEWARE!" A few days later he was astonished to see these words scrawled on the sign: "NOW IT'S TWO!"

Dennis Duvall, lover of antique and classic cars and operator of the Horseless Carriage car place over in Santee, wondered if he was still in the running when he overheard his wife talking with their son: "Mother, what becomes of old cars when they get too old to run?"

Her sardonic response: "Somebody sells them to your father."

So now we recall the good old days when a slipped disc was something the farmer used to plough up the south forty. The generation gap was neatly demonstrated by Leonard Klein of Marders in Lemon Grove who was scolding his daughter.

"You modern girls don't seem to care how you look any more," he grumbled. "Why, your hair looks like a mop."

"What's a mop?" the girl inquired innocently.

Mrs. Carolyn Watts of La Mesa announced to her husband Ronald, "Today's your birthday and have I got a surprise for you."

"Mr. Watts said, "Wonderful, I can hardly wait to see it."

"Just a minute," said Carolyn, "and I'll put it on.'

"What do most people want to get out of a car?" Overheard Ted Newcomb at George's Service Center in Lemon Grove.

Area Baha'is Celebrate Feast of Ridvan, Sat.

The Baha'is of Lemon Grove, Spring Valley, Santee and Lakeside will observe the First Day of Ridvan on Saturday evening in Lakeside.

According to Jerry Reich, Vice - chairman of Lemon Grove, the Feast of Ridvan commemorates the first of twelve days that Baha'u'llah, Prophet-Founder of the Baha'i Faith spent in the Ridvan garden before leaving for Baghdad. On this occasion the Baha'is will elect the nine members of their Spiritual Assembly.

Sunday, a pot-luck dinner will be held in honor of the tenth anniversary of the Baha'i Community. For more information contact Mrs. Joe Rushing, at 466-4688.

May 4—Sign-up Day For YMCA Summer Camps

"YMCA camps are a part of growing up," says Edward Gould executive director of the John A. Davis YMCA.

"In San Diego County, our youth can explore mountain trails, sail in a catamaran or enjoy a variety of day camp and travel camp activities right here in the John A. Davis YMCA."

Sign up day for all resident, travel, and day camps will be May 4, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the John Davis YMCA. Door prizes will include a 10 speed bicycle and a free camp session at Camp Marston and at Camp Surf. A camp T shirt will be given free to all registrants.

All YMCA resident camps include both boys and girls with trained counselors for "cabin" groups.

The 8-12 group will live in big tent cabins within the sound of the breakers at Camp Surf, Imperial Beach or at Camp Marston, Julian, they will live in "A" framed cabins and breath the clear mountain air.

Waterman camp, 10-12, at Camp Surf teaches water safety, surf boarding and skin diving.

A ten day cycler's camp, 13-16, at Raintree Ranch, Julian, will explore mountain roads and follow gold miner's trails on horseback.

Ocean explorers, 13-16, will go on a surf safari along the coast and Baja beaches.

A Leaders-in-training camp, 16-16, will combine the beaches and the mountains with counselor training experiences.

Day camp, 5-11, will provide variety of activities including games, crafts, and trips while living at home.

"Last year in San Diego County, 2,500 families and youths enjoyed YMCA resident camping" says Gold.

"We're looking for a larger registration this year and we're going to have a great summer."

S.D. Ballet Holds Swan Lake Tryouts

Stateside open auditions for dancers to appear in San Diego Ballet's new fall production of "Swan Lake" have been scheduled for next week, according to Dame Sonia Arova and Thor Sutowski, co-directors.

Auditions are to recruit both male and female dancers to augment the 16-member San Diego Ballet Company. The auditions will be held April 22 from 10 a.m. to noon at San Francisco Ballet, 378-18th ave., San Francisco; April 27 from 1 to 3 p.m. at the San Diego Ballet Centre, Market at Sixth sts., San Diego; and, April 30 from 1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the American School of Dance, 7021 Hollywood blvd., Los Angeles.

The auditions will be conducted by Sutowski, assisted by Miss Carlene Carroll, San Diego Ballet School teacher and business manager.

"Swan Lake", the popular four-act ballet set to the music of Tchaikovsky will be presented in Civic Theatre, San Diego, in October. Lavish new costumes and scenery are planned, Sutowski said.

More Ecological Input Asked by County Unit

Citizens can now make known their ideas about the conservation, development, and utilization of natural resources within the county.

The County's Conservation and Open Space Subcommittee is soliciting written comments from interested persons and organizations. The subcommittee is assisting the County's Environmental Development Agency in formulating the state-mandated conservation element for the County's General Plan.

The element will deal with soils, minerals, water, vegetation, wildlife and other natural resources.

The subcommittee has requested that any input be submitted by May 1, in the form of a short typewritten statement (two single-spaced pages).

Ideas should be sent to the Planning Department, County Administration Center, 1600 Pacific Highway, San Diego, 92101, Attention: Mike Brown.

The subcommittee is currently meeting every other Friday at 8:15 a.m. in Room 335 of the County Administration Center.

SV First Baptists Plan Week Ahead

Church school at 9:30 a.m.; morning worship at 11 a.m.; Baptist Youth fellowship at 6 p.m.; evening service at 7 p.m.

Rev. Rod Carver is pastor, with Albert Morales as minister of youth. Bill Simmons is choir director and Mrs. Mary Sunbury, Sunday School superintendent.

Mini Autos Race At Scout Fair

During April well over 200 miniature autos will compete on inclined raceways through Grossmont District as local Cub Scouts prepare for the San Diego 500 to be run at the Scout Fair, May 4.

The Championship race, a Fair highlight, will occur at 3 p.m. in the Apprentice Building at the Del Mar Fairground.

The racers, 7⅜ inches long by 2¾ inches wide, are carved from solid pine blocks, usually by father and son teams.

The grooved racetrack on which the championship race will be run will be approximately 45 feet long. Scout officials will begin the race by raising a starting gate. The tiny cars will move on their own momentum. The first to hit a foam bumber finish line will be declared winner.

April elimination races are being held in each of the seven Districts that comprise the San Diego County Council, Boy Scouts of America. On Scout Fair day, three racers from each district will compete in final elimination events. Then the big race will match the seven District champions.

The Scout District includes the communities of El Cajon, Spring Valley, La Mesa, Lemon Grove, Lakeside, Campo and East County areas.

The Scout Fair is an annual Springtime event in which thousands of Cubs, Scouts and Explorers demonstrate their skills and lores. It runs from 10:30 a.m. until 5 p.m.

Folk-A-Fair For Human Relatioins Set

Heartland Human Relations Association, in celebration of its fifth anniversary, will hold a community Folk-A-Fair at Helix High School in La Mesa, April 27 from 1 to 7 p.m. Featured will be continuous entertainment, food, and arts and crafts reflecting various ethnic and cultural groups.

Heartland Human Relations Association will also honor community people who have contributed significantly to human relations progress in the Heartland area during its five years of existence.

Joining with HHRA in this celebration will be members of People for People, a human relations group based in El Cajon, which has recently merged with HHRA.

Both groups, now functioning under the Heartland Human Relations Association name, promotes human relations in the fields of racial awareness, housing, education, affirmative action and awareness.

The public is invited to attend the Folk-A-Fair on April 27 for which there is no admission charge.

Letters to the Editor

Sports Saga Of KGTV No. 10

April 12, 1974
Dear Editor:

It is unfortunate you allow such an inaccurate and unfair assessment of what's happening in Television News in San Diego to appear in your Newspaper.

Yours, for Better Journalism,
Ronald E. Mires
News Director
KGTV 10

For readers who may have missed the "inaccurate and unfair assessment" of the recent separation of veteran sportscaster Al Couppee from his long-time post as sports director of KGTV 10, the April 4th article, written by John Wirges, charged that "one of our old and honored institutions was killed last week. It fell under an avalanche of avantgarde mod news program, directing and pop art telecasting.

"The principal was that 'Old Barn Burner' himself, Al Couppee. And while he got the knife in the back, we are all victims.

"Our world will be a lot less colorful, our sports coverage and our avenue for honest reporting much more narrow with the silencing of this man. It's almost like the loss of a basic freedom. And that makes us all losers.

"Coup was squeezed out in a deadly format fight over at KGTV, Channel 10. He lost to news director Ron Mires who seems bent on making the news more entertaining with lots of kidding around and by-play between his telecasters so viewers get to know what a fun place a television station really is. It's just fun. Fun. Fun.

"The old line, straight forward, hard hitting, call-a-spade-a-spade, reporter is no longer "in." News is now a comic opera. Gone are the solid believable anchor men like Sam Rinaker and Ray Wilson. And now mod news has dribbled over into sports and Al Couppee is gone.

"We can ill afford to lose such men. They stood for honesty and integrity, qualities of little regard these days, it would seem.

"'In their place we have a band of look alike mods, full of wise cracks and quick with the quip copy readers who think of themselves as actors playing a newsman's role.

"They wear paste-up smiles showing yards of teeth flashing in plastic grins as they report on how the sixth grade girls of Chipmonk elementary school all burned their practice bras.

"It's all very indepth stuff, folks, but unfortunately there isn't time tonight for any hard news. O.K. That's alright. Let's hear it for the girls from Chipmonk.

Often Irksome

"What does pass for hard news under the new 'art form' is mostly irreverent, largely irrelevant and often irksome. It's pure show-biz, folks. Just the mod way of saying we shouldn't take life too serious-

Dear Editor:

Just a short note to let you and your staff know how much I appreciate your excellent coverage of the new animal regulation laws which took effect April 6.

I am grateful to your paper for helping this office with its program to try to inform the public of the new laws. In this instance, cooperation between the press and the county resulted in county residents being better informed.

Sincerely,

County of San Diego

Dear Editor:

I want to thank you and congratulate you for the article you had in last week in the column - "The Dimmer View." I have always kidded you about looking at the bright side of life, and I know of no man who has done more to lift up the bright side of the community as you have. But at the same time, you have given the problems that have confronted us as a free government. As the saying was in yesteryear, so it is today, if there is to be good government it demands every citizen be on the alert and see to it nothing happens to the purpose of integrity and honorable thinking and doing.

TJ Police Blamed

Dear Editor:

A Grossmont Community College student was in Tijuana this past week-end with a friend buying a coat. The friend was a little short and so the Grossmont student opened his wallet to loan him some.

Apparently this was observed and as he left the store he was arrested for shop-lifting. The Tijuana police did not know what he was accused of stealing, but took him to the station, searched him and found nothing. He was told his trial would be in three weeks and he must remain. Two hours later they returned his clothes with a cheap wallet as evidence and told him he had the opportunity to post bond of $89.99. The coincidence was that his wallet contained $90.

He was never booked, was given no receipt for the bond and released.

I think that this should be published, alerting the general public of incidents like this so they can use their judgment before going as a tourist to our "friendly neighbors" south of the border.

Dear Editor:

You always write interesting Editorials. I wish to particularly compliment you on this week's: "The Grossmont Tax Override."

Your position is sound. I agree with it. The letters by John Stull to Robert Andreen, and Richard Fritzer are good. Mr. Troy M. Moore's letter clears up the issue well.

Kindest regards,

Mrs. William (Joanne) Roth

Candidate's Wife Lives Hectic, Public Life

Joanne Roth, the wife of William Matson Roth, a Democratic candidate for governor, said Thursday that her new role has changed her life completely. Being a candidate's wife has meant devoting 24 hours a day to the campaign, she said.

Mrs. Roth or one of her three daughters, ages 26, 24 and 16, are with Roth at each campaign stop that he makes. This has meant learning how to make speeches, give interviews and live out of a suitcase for the Roth women.

Child care, a special interest of Mrs. Roth has been her favorite area of discussion on the campaign trail. Before the race started Mrs. Roth kept busy working in her garden in the Roth's Sausalito home.

Mrs. Roth said that she and her husband had several "months of serious discussion" before he decided to run for office. As yet, Mrs. Roth has not met any of the other candidates' wives she added.

At one time Joanne Roth thought her husband was "too candid," but in this election where honesty is an important issue his candor is helpful she said.

The idea of living in Sacramento appeals to Mrs. Roth. She said she would 'like living in the Victorian mansion (governor's mansion)." If Roth is elected her daughter, now away at boarding school, would join them.

Mrs. Roth also explained how she handles the clothing problem that comes with all the travelling she has to do. "I have three outfits" and make sure they are clean and the buttons are sewn on.

LG Library Celebrates National Library Week

Nevt week is "National Library Week" and the Lemon Grove Library will be participating in the celebration with several events, Bob Cannon the librarian said.

The purpose of libraries according to a statement made by the American Library Association is "to create a better-read, better-informed America by encouraging lifetime reading habits and stimulating greater library use."

Some of the activities featured for next week at LG Library include:

— a gem and mineral collection on display during the week.

— two films for pre-school children, "Three Robbers" and "Shout it Out Alphabet," Tuesday at 10:30 a.m.

— a six week class in creative stitchery, Thursday at 10 a.m.

— a film "Whales," from the Jacques Cousteau series, Thursday, 7 p.m.

The Lemon Grove Library is open Monday-Friday from 10 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.

DeMolay Car Wash

Lemon Grove Chapter, Order of DeMolay will hold a car wash on April 27 at the Texaco Station at the corner of Central and Imperial ave. in Lemon Grove from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

A donation of $1.50 is being asked. Money raised from this event, and others to follow will help pay for members to attend the Southern California DeMolay Jurisdiction Conclave, to be held July 26 thru the 29 of this year.

HOME-COOKED This Week's RECIPE

We gratefully acknowledge the donation of this recipe from Jan Olden who works in Lemon Grove. Recipes you would like to share, we would love to print.

Basic Bread Pudding

Pudding:
4 cups dried bread (or muffins, rolls)
½ cup raisins
3 cups skim milk
1 cup sugar
3 whole eggs
Casserole dish with cover

First beat your eggs lightly and add the milk. Stir in your sugar until it is dissolved. (This can be done right in your casserole dish) Mix bread with milk mixture and let stand until bread is soaked through. Cover and place on a rack in a pan of water 1" deep. Bake in a 350 degree oven for 45 minutes or until a knife inserted in the pudding comes out clean.

Topping:
½ cup sugar
2 tablespoons cinnamon
4 tablespoons margarine or butter

Mix sugar, cinnamon and margarine. Crumble on top of pudding and brown under the broiler. Cool before serving.

Singing Hills Group Competes at Convention

The "Singing Hills" chapter of Sweet Adelines will be competing Saturday afternoon for regional honors during the Adelines convention at the Royal Inn at the Wharf in San Diego, this weekend.

The "Singing Hills" group is comprised of women from the southeast County area and rehearses each week at La Mesa Dale Elementary School.

32 choruses will compete Saturday from Southern California, Arizona and Nevada. 1500 vocalists, in all, are expected for the gathering.

Sweet Adelines, specializing in barbershop harmony, is the world's largest women's singing organization with a current membership of 25,000 in the United States, Canada, Guam and Panama.

The group's motto is "Harmonize the World". Mayor Pete Wilson proclaimed the week of April 15-21 as Sweet Adeline Week in honor of the convention.

A Little Light Shed On Watts and 'Lumens'

For several years Federal Trade Commission regulations have required light bulb packages to be labeled clearly as to watts, bulb life, and lumens. Consumers are fairly familiar with wattage and hours-of-life figures, but the meaning of "lumens" remains elusive to many.

"Lumens" is the actual light output of a bulb — the more lumens, the brighter the light.

A comparison of standard the La Mesa "Dial-A-Ride". incandescent, long-life incandescent and fluorescent bulbs looks like this:

Standard bulb, 75 watts = 750 hours, 1,190 lumens

Long-life bulb, 75 watts = 7,500 hours, 712 lumens

Fluorescent bulb, 75 watts = 12,000 hours, 6,300 lumens

Compare packages to get the most light for the same wattage: for the same energy, a 100-watt bulb gives 50 per cent more light than four 25-watt bulbs.

Watt for watt, fluorescent light is more economical than incandescent. Fluorescent lamps provide five times the light, last up to 10 times longer, and are cooler than ordinary bulbs. Where the bulb is going to be used is the best basis for deciding which bulb will be the most satisfactory.

The long-life bulb may be the best for hard-to-get-at spots, such as a hallway or attic, where a lot of light isn't needed but it's inconvenient to replace the bulb frequently. In the kitchen or above the bathroom mirror, the fluorescent gives the greatest amount of light for the longest hours.

One point to remember about fluorescent bulbs — switching them off-and-on constantly wears them out faster. Though a frequently-switched fluorescent bulb will still outlast the incandescent type, a little planning will assure the most hours from a fluorescent bulb.

Whichever bulbs, are selected, always remember to turn them off when not being used.

Biologist Warns Of Swarming Bees

Bee swarming season has begun, reports Charles Morse, San Diego County Agricultural Biologist in charge of bee inspection. Swarming usually starts about this time of year, he says, and continues through the summer. April, May, and June are particularly active months.

Lack of room for themselves and for honey storage and high temperatures can cause bees to swarm. The queen will leave with part of the colony and attempt to locate new living quarters.

The bees form in a ball, completely surrounding the queen and protecting her with their bodies. They may remain in one spot for several days.

According to Morse, swarming bees are usually gorged with honey, and if you don't bother them, they'll usually not bother you. Don't attempt to dislodge the cluster by hitting it with a stick or other object, or by hosing it down. This will only excite the bees and you may get stung.

Morse suggests that if you have problems with swarming bees, call the closest Department of Agriculture-Weights & Measures office. The name of a beekeeper in your area who has the required gear, too, and know-how to handle swarms can be supplied. Incidentally, beekeepers may charge for this service.

If you find that the bees have established themselves inside a building or its walls, call a structural pest control operator. They're listed in the yellow pages of your telephone book under "Pest Control," and they are licensed to perform this type of work.

A radar system for cars which will warn of impending collisions is being developed at the Sperry Research Center in New York.

DYNA METRIC — Suzette Pollard (seated) demonstrates the new sign-making process useed in the Dyna metric sign shop on Sweetwater blvd. to fellow employee Linda Crain.

One-Day Service Sign Shop Opens Here

J. Lowell Peterson, a Lemon Grove cafe operator, has opened a three-dimensional sign-manufacturing firm which specializes in producing signs the same day ordered.

The firm, Dyna Metrics, is at 8253 Broadway. The firm's signs are made of styrofoam in thicknesses of 1/8 to 8 inches. They are said to be impervious to weather and so light they may be hung anywhere without major installation problems.

Basic size is two feet by four but may be larger or smaller. Any color combination may be chosen between contrasting letters and background.

The Broadway plant is planned as a base for a chain of while-you-wait sign shops. At present, two letter artists are employed. They are Suzette Pollard, and Linda Crain, both are area housewives. Both women were trained by the shop manager, Norman "Pineapple" Ifuku. Eventually signs will be turned out in about 20 minutes, Ifuku said.

There are several advantages to styrofoam signs, Peterson said. Initial low cost is the overriding advantage. The firm will trade-in signs they have made because the signs do not deteriorate. They can be cleaned and recolored and the letters and base can be used again.

The firm will soon market gift kits for pre-school kiddies. Alphabet and numbers will come easier as a result of the letter-number kit, Peterson said. The material is non-poisonous and there are no sharp corners to injure youngsters, he said.

Dyna Metrics shops are open six days a week 9 a.m.-7 p.m.

Scouts Set Up Booths For Cookie Sale Here

Girl Scout Cookies will be delivered April 19-28. For those who did not pre-order their cookies there will be Girl Scout Cookie Booths throughout the council during that time.

In the Lemon Grove area, cookie booths will be located at all the banks on April 26 and at several supermarkets on April 27.

In the La Mesa area cookie booths will be located at the Grossmont Shopping Center and Handyman.

The proceeds from the annual cookie sale goes toward special troop activities and the council camping programs. This includes maintaining Camp Davidson and the camping facilities at the Balboa Service Center, the development of Camp Winaca and for camperships.

The Grove-Mesa Ed. Center Cookie Chairman, Dot Oswalt, may be contacted at 465-8719 if you would like another box of Mints, Scot-teas, Savanahs, Lemon Cremes or Seseme Crisps.

Chacon Attends Local Soroptomist Meeting

Assemblyman Peter Chacon (79th District) recently attended the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley Soroptimist breakfast meeting held at the Mobile Park Terrace Recreation Room.

The Soroptimists expressed their appreciation to Chacon for authoring Assembly Bill 2818, which is concerned with nutrition for the elderly. Chacon complimented the 18 months of work done by the Soroptimists to get a nutrition program started in the LG-SV area.

Sports Saga

ly. And now a feature on a bilingual parrot who took the vow of silence."

And just for the record, it was such trivia as the non-talking "talking" parrot that encouraged KGTV's News Director to go "tape" on Hank Aaron's record-breaking homer and feed it later to the bird-cage public. Other stations had it live two hours earlier. "Better Journalism", indeed:

But back to Wirges' column:

"Couppee, who has been 'Mr. Sports' on San Diego's broadcast scene ever since he came here from Iowa 13 years ago, gave it a good fight. The rug, 'tis said, was pulled out from beneath him from up above.

"For his efforts Coup was ordered to resign from all the groups and commissions he has so ably assisted and gave so unselfishly of his time."

If there is a consideration regarding semantics, the information was that Couppee "devoted too much time" to outside activities.... same thing as being "ordered."

"It seems strange to this passer-by that a TV station would order its sports director to quit such sports related groups as the Breitbard Athletic Foundation, the Hall of Champions and the California State Athletic Commission. But that's what Coup was forced to do.

"It would seem the new command at KGTV, Channel 10, doesn't believe in having its staff members become part of the community. And that is a mighty strange way for folks to act when they deem it their right to beam their hog-wash into our living rooms."

There's more to the column but the thrust is to be found in the foregoing—but if there is enough demand for a reprinting in its entirety, we'll accommodate.

NEW LOOK — San Diego harbor excursion boats get ready for summer season after winter facelifting. In keeping with interior refurbishing, racing stripes have been added to give a sleek look to the cruise trio. Ferry personnel boats which predate the Coronado bridge have also been added. One is a boutique and the other is available for private parties.

Tourist Flotilla Ready For Summer Visitors

San Diego's tourism flotilla has been refurbished.

Three vessels of the San Diego Harbor excursion fleet have undergone newly-designed paint jobs and minor structural changes.

Decks and interior areas have been renovated while outside, racing stripes decor gives the boats a sleek, new appearance.

The boats, the Marietta, the Cabrillo and the Silvergate are ready to take over where they left off last season when 2,730 excursions were logged when thousands of visitors and natives were given harbor-eye views of San Diego, Coronado, the fishing, fighting and pleasure fleets in San Diego Bay.

The former personnel ferry, the Glorietta, which once traversed the Bay has been converted into a stationary gift shop and re-named the Glorietta Boat-ique.

Another remodeled personnel ferry has been added to the Harbor Excursion fleet for charter cruises. It will accommodate groups for luncheons, dinners, cocktails and dancing.

The excursion cruises leave daily from the foot of Broadway at Harbor dr. A 25-mile, two-hour cruise departs at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. A 12-mile, one-hour cruise leaves at various hours. Fares are $3.75 — $1.85 for children on the two-hour trip; $2.25 and $1.10 on the shorter one.

Social Security Benefits On the Rise for County

Social Security benefits increased by seven percent in April for East County residents.

"The increase will bring Social Security payments in the East County up to $6,250,000 per month," Louise Miner, Social Security Branch Manager in La Mesa, said. "And in July Social Security beneficiaries can look forward to another four percent increase," Ms. Miner aded.

But for those receiving both Social Security and the new Supplemental Security Income benefits, the total amount of their monthly payments will remain the same. The amount of their Social Security increase will be deducted from their Supplemental Security Income check.

The 7% increase in Social Security benefits will raise the average benefit of retired workers from $162 to $174. For a retired worker who has a wife entitled to benefits, the average amount will increase from $277 to $297 for the two of them.

The minimum age 65 benefit rate will increase from $84.50 to $90.50 for a retired worker. The alternative special minimum benefit rate payable to wage earners with more than 20 years of employment at low wages will increase to a maximum of $180 from the present $170 level. The $180 would be payable if the worker was employed for 30 years or more at the low wage rate.

The highest benefit payable to a 65 year old worker retiring in 1974 will be increased from the present $276.40 level to $295.80.

The special payments made to people age 72 and older who are not eligible for any other government pension will also be raised by 7% in April.

Wage Violation Can Bring Fine or Jail

California's minimum wage of $2 an hour is the pay benchmark for nearly all industries and adult workers in the State, and employers who do not pay the minimum wage leave themselves open to criminal charges.

The State minimum wage increased on March 4 from $1.65 to $2 an hour, and employers have had time by now to make the upward pay scale adjustment, according to Evelyn Whitlow, Chief of the Division of Industrial Welfare in the State Department of Industrial Relations.

"We have had complaints, however, particularly involving the restaurant industry, that the new minimum scale is not being paid or that the coverage has not been extended to men," Miss Whitlow says.

The new State minimum wage order, for the first time, applies to men as well as to women. In previous years, men could only benefit from the minimum wage under equal pay provisions of the California Labor Code.

"Employers operating restaurants, hotels, and other personal service industries have tended over the years to consider tips and gratuities as part of the total wage package. Since March 4, for tip credit to be taken, a sign so stating must be posted in a conspicious place where it may be observed by patrons. If the employee is a tipped employee and regularly receives more than $20 per month in gratuities, up to 25 cents an hour may be credited toward the $2 an hour basic minimum wage," Miss Whitlow says.

The penalties for violating minimum wage requirements of the Industrial Welfare Commission orders are fines or imprisonment or both under the California Labor Code.

Consumption of fresh fruit is down 14 per cent since 1960, according to the Department of Agriculture.

Milk Price Hike Eyed By Deddeh

Assemblyman Wadie P. Deddeh has introduced a resolution (H.R. 138) in the State Legislature to investigate recent 5 cents a half gallon increase in retail milk prices.

Deddeh's resolution calls for a complete legislative study of the system which allows the Director of Food and Agriculture to raise milk prices.

"I believe it is possible for the dairy industry to make a reasonable overall profit on their products without the type of prohibitive increases in retail milk prices we have recently experienced," Deddeh said.

"It is very important, particularly for families with young children, that Grade A milk prices in the store not be too high.

"Instead the Director of Food and Agriculture should consider setting a minimum profit on liquid milk prices, while allowing producers to make a slightly higher profit on manufactured dairy products, such as cheese and yogurt," Deddeh concluded.

A similar procedure is utilized by the Public Utilities Commission in setting Phone Company rates, Deddeh reported.

Van Deerlin Opens Tax Account to Public

Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin, D-San Diego, has released his personal income tax documents for public scrutiny.

They show that he paid $6,846 in federal, and $2,194 in state income taxes for the year 1973 — totaling $9,040 in taxes on a gross adjusted income of $43,234.

Nearly all the Van Deerlins' income was accounted for by his $42,500 annual salary as a member of Congress. The return indicates the family also derived $584.44 interest income and netted $150.08 from other sources.

"I feel strongly the right of ordinary citizens to utmost privacy in tax matters. But by the very nature of his calling, a public official must forgo that right. It seems especially important if government is to regain the trust of citizens," he said.

You and Your Pet

By Rayond A. Minor, D.V.M.
Mgr. of Veterinary Services
Norden Laboratories

The transition from kennel to new home can be bewildering for your new puppy.

There are several things you can do to help him adjust.

Once you have brought your pup home, allow him time to get used to things. He will probably want to sniff around the house and parade before everyone.

If there are young children around, caution them about being over-zealous in greeting their new friend. Encourage them not to shriek-out or make sudden grabs at him. Sudden movements and unaccustomed loud noises frighten small dogs. Remember, your role is to gain his confidence.

After your puppy has had a chance to relax, give him a pan of warm milk or water. This will confirm you are a friend.

During the first few nights in its new home, your pet may whine because it misses its mother and the warmth of former littermates.

There are several things you can do to relieve his loneliness and your own anxiety. Be compassionate, but be firm. You cannot run to comfort him each time he whimpers or you will spoil him.

Make a comfortable bed from an orange crate or carton. Make sure you line the carton with a removable material like a newspaper — the puppy has little control over his bladder and bowels. Also, you can help calm his fears with something warm like a hot water bottle. It may make him feel that he is back at his mother's side.

After a few nights in its new home, your pup should have adjusted. Then you can make a permanent bed for him. The bed should be big enough to accommodate growth. It should be placed out of the line of household traffic to permit undisturbed naps.

And, make sure you keep the sleeping quarters very clean. Be certain the surface material is soft and not abrasive.

Regular examinations for your new pet are a matter of common sense. Find out from your pet-owning neighbors where the nearest veterinarian is located. Then if your new companion develops problems, you'll know where to go for help.

Dr. Minor regrets that he is unable to personally answer letters from pet owners. He suggests that readers consult their own veterinarians when their pets have problems.

Arms Cutback Endangers Nation Says J. Johnson

A former Defense Department Official now running for the United States Senate charged Congress with seriously weakening the international posture of the United States.

James E. "Johnny" Johnson, former Assistant Secretary of the Navy, told supporters at a San Diego organization meeting that Congressmen now blaming the President's political problems must accept responsibility themselves because of massive cuts in the defense budget.

"You can't blame Watergate for weakening the detente and for eroding our position as world force for peace," Johnson said. "You have to blame those Congressmen and Senators who have denied money to our Armed Forces for necessary research and development of weapons systems. Because vital programs have been curtailed or eliminated in recent years, we have not been able to keep on an equal military level with the Soviet Union."

Johnson, who traveled extensively representing the United States in Europe and Asia while in the Navy Department, said foreign governments feel the United States is "second to the Soviet Union in strength and in the willingness to use that strength."

R.A. Sponsors Brunch For Charles Percy

Senator Charles Percy R-Ill. will address a public buncheon sponsored by Republican Associates of San Diego County on at 11 a.m., May 4 in the new convention center of the Vacation Village Hotel in Mission Bay.

Sen. Percy is considered one of the leading contenders for the Republican nomination for President in 1976. His current strength is centered largely in the Midwest and East. Before entering politics he was president of Bell & Howell.

Tickets to the buncheon cost $10 and may be obtained by calling 234-3343 or by writing to Republican Associates at 432 "E" st. in San Diego. Persons under 22 years of age

Consumers to Pay For NOx Cutback

San Diego Gas & Electric Company's four-year program to reduce emissions of oxides of nitrogen (NOx) from its power plants has been highly successful — but the expense has added another cost burden to the consumers.

Walter A. Zitlau, president of the company, said all of the utility's power generating units now meet the County Air Pollution Control District's 1974 air quality standards, which are acknowledged to be the stiffest of any in the country.

Expenditures for instrumentation of boilers, development of new and greatly different firing techniques, boiler mtdifications and addition of new equipment to meet the air quality standards total approximately $7 million.

"We are having to burn more fuel to produce a given amount of electricity," Zitlau said. "We haven't computed the cost of this penalty, but considering that we are paying an average of $10.82 per barrel for fuel oil, it is expected to be considerable."

"Much of the overall expense involved in meeting these standards was due to the deadlines (Jan. 1, 1974) imposed by the APCD. We protested that the cost would be very great if the time limits were strictly imposed," Zitlau said. "In the crash effort to meet the deadline, we were obliged to use whatever means were effective, despite the cost, and leave the refinements to later. Today we are in the midst of the refinement task."

Cal-Canadian Bank Builds

California Canadian Bank has started construction of a two-story 14,000 square foot building at 680 Fletcher Parkway that will serve as the bank's permanent facility in El Cajon.

The bank has served customers in the El Cajon area since 1972 from a temporary facility. Adrian Gammage, manager of the El Cajon Office, said that completion of the new building is scheduled in six months and there would be no interruption of any banking services during construction.

The bank said that cost of the building would be in excess of $750,000.

Free Tickets For Hank Aaron Night

More than 12,000 tickets will be distributed free for Hank Aaron Night at the Stadium, May 13, sponsored by the Magnavox Dealers of San Diego County.

Don Latimer, Magnavox regional manager, said dealers had purchased the entire top deck of the stadium for that night's game between the Padres and the Atlanta Braves, the first meeting of the two teams in San Diego.

The dealers will distribute the tickets free at their stores starting May 1.

"We hope to provide the opportunity for those who want to honor Hank to do so on May 13," Latimer said. "Ticket distribution will be limited to two per person and children (18 and under) must be accompanied by an adult."

The purchase of the top deck is the largest single game group sale in the Padres history.

Twenty-four stores will participate in the distribution of the free tickets including Walker Scott, Clairemont; and May Co., Parkway Plaza.

Motocross Back At Carlsbad

The Hang Ten U. S. Motocross Grand Prix at Carlsbad July 14 will be the eighth round in the World Motocross Championship for 500cc machines.

Last year 40,000 people saw Willi Bauer of West Germany dominate the field consisting of top riders from thirteen nations take the overall win.

The H.T.-U.S. Motocross Grand Prix is one of only eleven to count for the championship of the world and it is only the second year the event has taken place in America in this form.

TAKE FIVE

By John E. Wirges

It's one of the duties of the hard working sports types around and about to accompany the boss on some of the more arduous assignments. This task is not looked on with any great enthusiasm, things being what they are, when the boss says to go, one goes.

It is in this reference I will journey with the owner, publisher, back-shop boss, editor, columnist, chief cook and bottle washer and defender of the working girl of this paper, Max Goodwin, to the trials and tests of our annual trek to La Costa.

Now life at Rancho La Costa differs greatly from the smooth, unhurried, work-a-day pace of beautiful downtown Lemon Grove.

You'll see no gas stations on corners at La Costa. Those who wish fuel must leave the premises and purchase some elsewhere. Rancho La Costa living is not "handy" if living near gas station ,truck stop, fuel pit or car wash is high on your list of requirements.

And, also at La Costa, you will find no friendly tavern where one may meet with friends and soak up suds and atmosphere the likes of which one may do at the Foxy Lady and other such places of wonderment in Lemon Grove and Spring Valley.

Would you believe they even keep the lights on in the bar of the great tavern room at the Rancho? You can actually see who sits left and right and across the bar.

Oh, well. Goodwin and I have faced tougher assignments and I'm sure we'll get through this one.

The 'Caddie' Is His

It is embarrassing, though, when you drive up to the grand entrance at Rancho La Costa and have a handsome young lad just a few years younger than you — somewhere around 22 — call you "Sir," and treat you with respect while parking your car for you. It's even worse when your car is an "inexpensive" model often referred to as a "cheap fourbanger," and the lad parking it just stepped out of a brand new "Caddie." He wasn't parking the Cad., it's his. He bought it with last year's tips.

It sure makes you wish you had at least washed yours. Oh, well, you might as well forget the car or you'll start worrying about how your clothes, carefully selected from Sears bargain basement seem to just hang on you in La Costa light, while the natives all seem to have garments cut to their exact size.

You can smile secretly, knowing they probably got soaked for what they wear while you got by with $16 for the jacket and $6 for the pants. One saves where one can. Goodwin blew $47 on his outfit.

Goodwin and I will be there to gaze, stare, look and generally peer at a group of young ladies all vieing for the title "Miss MONY Tournament of Champions Queen." The gals are from local colleges and local sports types are called on by the kind folk at La Costa to lend their expertize in selecting a Queen for next week's golfing extravaganza.

The MONY Tournament of Champions is the most exclusive golf test in the world. Each contestant must have won a bona fide PGA tourney or the British Open during the last 12 months. In today's mini-wars of the pro golf circuit, brother, that's exclusive.

Beauty Queens, Too

And it's fittin' that such a thing as the MONY TofC should have a quality queen. Picking one off a San Diego campus is a natural, cause everybody knows the prettiest girls in the world live right here in the southland.

But the judging is hard. One must make his selection on both brains and beauty. To be fair, a judge must associate with the contestants. Not just one or two, either. But each and every one of them. And one must do this at a leisurely pace.

To overcome thoughts of haste, the kind folks at La Costa serve their meditating jurists fine food and spirited drink. Such nobles as Foster Brooks are often sent into their company to ease the burden of final judgment. Brooks is the movie-teevee-night club star who simulates drunks, picking up where W. C. Fields left off.

It is to this task that Goodwin and I will address ourselves this afternoon. God help us in our responsibilities.

It is not of our calling. It is not of our doing. It is just one of the hazards one must face when he takes up the sports writing trade.

Nominees Listed For 5th 'Golden Jock' Award

Winner?—W. H. Chamberlain

Five of San Diego's leading sports figures have been nominated for the 1974 Golden Jock Award.

Presentation of the award will be the highlight of the annual "roasting" banquet of the Sportscasters / Sportswriters Assn. of San Diego. It will be held at the Town and Country Convention Center on Thursday night, May 2.

Nominated for the second time is Padre president Buzzie Bavazi. First time candidate is Conquistador's coach Wilt Chamberlain. The winner will be elected at the Monday-before-the Award luncheon of San Diego's Sportscasters/ Sportswriters Association.

Nominees, listed alphabetically, are: Buzzie Bavazi, president San Diego Padres; Dr. Leonard Bloom, owner San Diego Conquistadors; Wilt Chamberlain, coach San Diego Conquistadors; Gene Klein, owner San Diego Chargers; Harland Svare, general manager San Diego Chargers.

SSS president Matt Mitchell called the candidates, "A deserving group for this most

HERE'S THE ACTION — Jim Hitt of Lemon Grove, driving a Chevyll (No. 12) in a tight finish at the flag. Hitt and other local race drivers are carded for Saturday's schedule of events at the Cajon Speedway. Qualifications are at 6:30 with 60 cars listed as entries. Racing starts at 8 p.m. with a four-car trophy dash.

Cajon Oval Season Opens Saturday

The long-awaited Super Season begins Saturday night when the super stocks battle on the new asphalt surface at popular Cajon Speedway.

Racing traffic on the two and three-groove banked oval will jam up in an action-packed show which starts at 8 p.m. with a four-car trophy dash. Qualifications for an anticipated entry list of 60 cars will get underway at 6:30.

Defending champion Pat McIntyre, the Spring Valley building contractor who tuned up for the opener by blitzing a South Bay field of late model sportsman two weeks ago, will be heading the strong field with his beautifully-prepared 1964 Chevy II.

He will open his campaign for an unprecedented third consecutive El Cajon Stock Car Racing Association championship. The last two years, however, he did not wrap up the title until the final event of the season, nipping Tom Zelesky in 1972 and John Dineen last year.

Hitt and Hale Back

There will be four other former champions in the hunt, too. They are Russ Bullen of Bonita, Tex Kimbrell of Imperial Beach, Jim Hitt and Ed Hale of Lemon Grove.

Hitt last year captured seven main events and has won more than 25 since he has been active in the super stock car shows. Bullen and Kimbrell, who are the only other two-time champions, are next in overall number of feature triumphs.

The competition runs deep at Cajon Speedway and there should be several younger drivers who figure to be in the thick of it.

Bracketed in this group will be Ron Esau of San Diego, last year's rookie of the year; Larry Aufdengarten of San Diego, Ralph "Skip" Dineen of Blossom Valley and Carl Simon of El Cajon.

Drivers searched for the proper grooves during last week's open house and found it much to their liking.

The new asphalt, grandstand work and other noticeable improvements are part of a $20,000 refurbishing program for the 1974 season.

Cajon Speedway is probably one of the finest in the Far West and will be entering its 14th season for auto racing. Since 1961, a total of 1.4 million fans have witnessed the programs and racing director Earle Brucker Jr. anticipates one of the finest years during Super Season 1974.

Last Year's Final Standings:

1. Pat McIntyre, Spring Valley, 2,780
2. John Dineen, El Cajon, 2,775
3. Jim Hitt, Lemon Grove, 2,650
4. Tim Biggers, El Cajon, 2,005
5. Gary Crossland, Lakeside, 1,945
6. Ron Overman, S. Diego, 1,840
7. John Borneman, El Cajon, 1,685
8. Wes Osburn, Chula Vista, 1,470
9. G. Tom Zelesky, El Cajon, 1,450
10. Bill Butts, El Cajon, 1,435

Main Event Winners:

McIntyre 5, Hitt 7, Borneman 5, Dineen 1, Crossland 1, Overman 1, Osborn 1, Sonny Tomlinson 1, Mark Stahl 1.

Reinecke Names Chairman

Lt. Gov. Ed Reinecke, Republican candidate for governor, announced the appointment of Albert L. Anderson, DDS, of San Diego as county chairman of his 1974 campaign.

As chairman, Dr. Anderson, a dentist, will work with regional and precinct leaders to coordinate and direct the local campaign.

Reinecke received the endorsement of his campaign for governor last month from the California Republican Assembly.

Miller to Bid For 5th Win At La Costa's MONY Tourney

Johnny Miller

There's a nice ring to the words, as if they belong to a song sung to a congregation of one.

"I don't know how long this will last," said Johnny Miller, who already has won four tournaments this year, "but it's fun while it does."

Miller's fun figures to be prominent in the Tournament of Champions, starting April 25 and continuing through April 28 at La Costa Resort Hotel, Spa and Country Club.

The $200,000 Tournament of Champions, sponsored by Mutual of New York (MONY), bring together tour winners of the past dozen months. Under this format, Miller could be playing in a fivesome — by himself.

Since January he has captured the Bing Crosby, Tucson, Phoenix and Heritage events. Last June, the handsome Miller made up six strokes during a blazing summer's round, shooting an eight-under par 63 to win the U. S. Open.

Tough Competition

Of course, his competition in the Tournament of Champions isn't exactly unfamiliar with similar heroics. Miller, if he is to win at La Costa, must overcome a field famous with such names as Jack Nicklaus, Lee Trevino, Tom Weiskopf, Bruce Crampton, Ben Crenshaw and Dave Hill.

And there's also a strong San Diego contingent entered; Billy Casper, Gene Littler and John Schroeder.

But Miller believes he is quite prepared to handle such a stout challenge. His competitive attiude is all "go."

Iron Game Good

"I don't feel there's a significant weakness in my game right now," he says. "I'm hitting my irons the best ever. And my overall game is much improved."

Even after earning $127,833 last year, Miller categorized himself as a "feast or famine player."

"I make everything, or I make nothing," he said.

But as his game has improved, so has his opinion of his own ability.

"I'm much more confident of my ability," he says. "I

Dolphins vs Chargers For First Home Game

Mighty Miami will be the first National Football League home opponent for the San Diego Chargers in 1974.

Champions of Super Bowl VII and VIII, the Dolphins of Coach Don Shula will make their first San Diego Stadium appearance in five years on Sunday, Sept. 29.

The NFL season begins on Sept. 15, according to the complete 1974 schedule released today.

Under new Coach Tommy Prothro, the Chargers will begin the new campaign that day against their old coach, Sid Gilman, and his Houston Oilers at the Astradome. The Chargers move on to Cincinnati on Sept. 22 to tangle with Paul Brown and his Bengals, 1973 American Conference Central Division champions.

After coming home against Miami, the Chargers remain at home on Oct. 6 to battle Roman Gabriel and the Philadelphia Eagles. All San Diego Stadium home games will be on Sunday at 1 p.m.

The Chargers embark on their American Conference West Division schedule against defending champion Oakland, Denver and Kansas City on successive Sundays. They play the Raiders at Oakland on Oct. 13, the Broncos at Denver, Oct. 20 and the Chiefs at San Diego Stadium on Oct. 27.

The Cleveland Browns visit San Diego Stadium on Nov. 3, marking the return of former Charger Bob Babich. The Chargers travel to Kansas City on Nov. 10 to face the Chiefs for the second time in three weeks. The Oakland Raiders make their annual San Diego appearance on Nov. 17.

The Chargers journey to wintry Green Bay for the first time against the Packers on Nov. 24 and continue east for their first visit to Shea Stadium in five years on Dec. 1.

Returning home for the final two weeks, the Chargers play host to the Chicago Bears on Dec. 8 and Denver Broncos on Dec. 15.

Season tickets for Charger games, available in 11-game full season or 7-game NFL season packages, now are available for purchase at Gate E at San Diego Stadium.

USD Battles For Playoffs Saturday

The battle of the ratings and a possible NCAA postseason playoff berth are squarely on the line for the USD baseball team this week with three important contests scheduled.

Coach John Cunningham's Toreros entertain Cal State Fullerton in a noon doubleheader, Saturday, after opening the action with a single game at Chapman College, Wednesday.

USD is currently resting at 16-10 and must show well this week for a playoff spot. The Toreros were rated 10th nationally among college division teams last week but since havt lost four of five outings.

Pair of Prize Fighters Named Garcia, Meet Fri.

Two ranking title contenders, each vying for a shot at the junior middleweight crown, are to be attractions in back-to-back boxing shows at the San Diego Coliseum at 15th and E sts.

This Friday undefeated Chilian sensation Renato Garcia, who claims he earned a crack at the championship by outpointing Denny Moyer in San Diego in March, will tackle tough Jesus "Chu Cho" Garcia (no relation) of Reynosa, Mexico in a sizzling rematch scheduled for 10 rounds.

Next week popular knockout artist Oscar "Shotgun" Albarado, formerly of the stable of the outspoken Harry Kabakoff, will be on display for the first time at the local arena. According to his current backers, the "Shotgun" from Uvalde, Texas has already signed to meet 154 pound king Koichi Wajima, and therefore considers his appearance here as a tune-up for that date.

Should Oscar turn back the WBC Japanese champion, however, San Diego could play host in the near future to a truly exceptional battle, the showdown between Albarado and Renato Garcia.

First, though, Renato must get past durable Chu Cho Friday, and judging from the disputed, split nature of their battle last October, the task won't be an easy one. Shooting for his 25th consecutive professional triumph, the 22-year old Renato was put to the acid by Moyer in his last outing, while the Mexican-born Garcia enjoyed a kayo romp over Lalo Barriente in his last appearance.

In a companion 10-rounder, Friday, Mike Mazon, under the trainership of San Diego's Danny Milsap, meets Cesar Sinda, of the Congo.

Ten rounds of prelims will make up the program with the first bout slated for 8:15. Tickets are $3-$5-$6 and $7.50.

Motorcycle Races to Return To South Bay Oval Saturday

More than 100 of the west's top motorcycle racers will compete at the South Bay Park Speedway in Chula Vista, Saturday night when an 18-event AMA Flat-track racing program is held on the half-mile clay oval. Racing starts at 8 p.m.

Racing director Don Basile opened with a capacity crowd for the "Cal Rayborn Memorial" races last month. Then rain washed out the second AMA flat-track program, after two heat races had been held.

Several top riders who missed the Rayborn Memorial races are expected to be on hand. These include the sensational Dave Aldana of Santa Ana, who rode his Norton to victory at Ascot Park in Los Angeles last Friday night.

He'll have to beat Northern California's top rider, Rick Hocking of Fremont, winner of the Rayborn Memorial race. In that event he beats out former grand national riding champions Mert Lawwill and Gene Romero. He'll ride a Yamaha in the nights 15 lap expert feature.

Other top rated riders expected to compete include, Frank Gillespie of Walnut Creek, Sal Peluso of San Diego; Ron Moore of San Bernardino; Tom White of Huntington Beach; Ron Powell and Tom Horton of Lancaster; John Hately of Van Nuys; Bobby Sanders of Whittier; Dewayne Keeter of Ojai; and Eddie Wirth of Dana Pt.

San Diego county will be well represented by Peluso, Pat Guthrie of Spring Valley; John Allison of Poway; Larry Collie of Imperial Beach; Brent Knauer of Sunnyside; Don Frauenberge of Oceanside; Brad Holt of Imperial Beach; and Scott Marshall of Spring Valley.

Gates open at 6 p.m., when 4,500 general admission seats go on sale.

Padres Come Home For Eight Games

The San Diego Padres will make their first venture of the season against Eastern Division teams during an 8-game homestand starting Tuesday.

New York, Philadelphia and Montreal will appear in that order in the San Diego Stadium.

"The New York series will be a key one for us," said manager John McNamara. "It's important for use to get off to a good start to build up some momentum before the home fans.

"You can't underestimate the value of the home fans, especially the effect they have on the ball players. It's important to have them cheering you on because the old adrenalin really gets to flowing. Look what it did for us in that great comeback we made against the Giants in the last homestand a 6-5 win on Apr. 14). Believe me, the fans had a lot to do with the way we caught fire in that five-run eighth inning rally."

The New York Mets will be leading things off, coming in for Tuesday through Thursday single games. Game time each evening will be 7 p.m.

A special exhibition softball game will be held on Apr. 25th at 6 p.m. featuring teams from the San Diego Girls Softball Association.

Van Wagenen Wins Carlton Oaks Play

CARLTON OAKS — Jeff Van Wagenen, of Phoenix, matched five bogies with five birdies for a 4-under par 140 to win $2,250 Tuesday in the fourth matchup of the International Tournament Golf series.

Bob Risch, of Yorba Linda, with a 141 took $1,500 second place money the second time in a row.

Santee's Lon Hinkle took third with 142 and won $1,225.

Friday, Jack Spradlin, Jr. dropped a 25-foot, up-hill putt on the first hole of the ITGA Tourney at Carlton Oaks, for a birdie. "This is it," he said, and assaulted the course for a 68, to win the third ITGA tournament of the 10 match series with a 139 total. He won $2,250.

Bob Risch of Yorba Linda was second at 142, three strokes back, after 3-putting twice. He earned $1,500 for the two day event.

Cesar Sanudo, of El Cajon, tied Ken Merscheim of Glendora and Phoenix native Jeff Van Wagenen at 142, worth $1,025 each.

San Diegans Greg Trompas and Mitch Vogas joined a group at 143 to earn $775 and John Jacobs, also of San Diego, picked up $700 for an even par 144 finish.

Jack Spradlin, Sr., caddied for the winner, but remained an amateur toter. "Jack keeps me pure," he said. "He never even offered any money."

Spradlin bogied the 395 yard, par 4, second hole when his drive flew under a tree. He came out with a left handed swing on his putter and wrested four more birdies.

Sanudo said he "chili dipped" an eight iron, then missed an easy 3-foot putt for a double bogie on the 425 sixth hole, but came back with a 95 yard wedge that had eyes for the cup. He turned the front nine behind a pair of birdies to support the eagle and matched a pair of birds to a pair of bogies for a 69. He opened the fancy scoring with a bird on five.

Backs Named For L.A. Shrine Game

Dwight Ford of Bell and Kevin Cole of Gardena, the two greatest running backs in Los Angeles City prep history, were among the 28 select players named to represent the South in the Al Malaikah Temple's 1974 Shrine Football Game July 27 at the Rose Bowl.

The South squad was selected in a day-long session of the All-Southern California Board of Athletics, composed of sports writers throughout the Southland, and chaired by Bill Schroeder, managing-director of Citizens Savings Athletic Foundation.

The beneficiary of the charity classic, which will feature 56 top graduated seniors from 50 high schools throughout Southern California, will be the Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children, Los Angeles Unit.

Completing the South's offensive backfield will be quarterbacks Bobby Sayers of Riverside, and Dennis Thurman of Santa Monica, and fullback Mike Harris of Indio.

Ford and Cole were named co-players of the year on the 1973 All-City prep team because of their explosive running, which enabled them to smash all previous City rushing records.

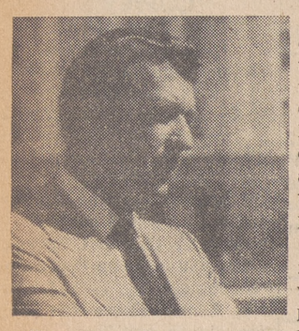
ness when it ousts its editor because of an outlandishly fitting story for the Day that it was. If the Wall Street Journal still prints its April Fool issue (it is circulated only among the brokerage house people), they probably had a story about Israeli Defense Minister Moshe Dayan resigning to become chancellor of the Syrian College of Mid-East Culture which would be located — where else — but on Golan Heights.

The whole point being that chancellors have not been noted for having an enlarged sense of humor. And this is one case where that shortage shows through.

Walsh Vows to Serve All As Lieutenant Governor



Two receptions over a 30 day span indicates some kind of determination of a candidate who's running for the office of Lt. Governor.

But State Senator Lawrence E. Walsh (Dem-L.A. 30th) not only is making the political circuit throughout the state with determination, but he has forfeited his senatorial seat to do it.

"I've served 8 years and now it's time to move up," he said at the reception last week at Kona Kai club. He told his supporters that "the timing is good."

"When I am elected I intend to change the lieutenant governor's office from one of prestige only to an effective arm of state government. I intend to have direct contact with the governor's office instead of through a liaison officer as it now is."

Walsh is a successful business man. He owns and operates the Walsh (heavy) Equipment Co. in Downey. He is a member of the Moose, Knights of Columbus, Sons of the Golden West, State and L.A. Democratic Central Committee.

Before being elected to the Senate, he served in Huntington Park as mayor, city councilman and planning and zoning commissioner.

In the senate he serves as chairman of the transportation committee; chairman of the select committee on L.A. County Public Transportation Problems; committees on government organizations; insurance and financial institutions; public utilities and corporations.

"I intend to serve all Californians," Walsh said. "This will be a part of a heavy campaign program I'll launch after the primary." Walsh is slim, trim and personable.

At 47, he hardly looks old enough to have served in government seventeen years.

VA Health Care Meets More Needs

Veterans Administration health care has recently been opened up to include some veterans' dependents. Officials say notices are now being mailed to those believed to be eligible.

The VA has attempted to determine eligibility from its records but those who receive the notices should get verification from a nearby VA hospital or outpatient clinic.

They can then pick up identification cards that will entitle them to medical treatment in non-VA hospitals.

The new program is called CHAMPVA (Civilian Health and Medical Program — Veterans Administration), and the following dependents are eligible:

Widows, widowers and children of veterans who died of service-connected disabilities after leaving military service;

Dependents of veterans with service-connected disabilities that have been judged total and permanent.

Griffin's Track Record on Line

Grossmont College will put its 42-meet win streak and the Mission Conference championship on the line Friday when the Griffins host Palomar College at 2:30.

Saddleback College will also be competing in the double-dual affair.

The Griffins did not compete in the Southern California Relays as scheduled last week. Instead, they concentrated their efforts on preparing for Friday's crucial meet with Palomar.

Meanwhile Coach Noel Mickelsen's slump-ridden baseball team won three games in one day last Wednesday as they won the Bakersfield invitational. The Griffs nipped Fresno City College, 2-1, blanked Bakersfield, 2-0, and took the title game, 7-5, over San Joaquin Delta.

Freshman Vince Montallegro was the big bat for the Griffins as he powered his 9th and 10th home runs of the season against Delta. He also had a double and four runs batted in.

The Griffins will travel to Riverside City College today before returning home for a 1 p.m. Saturday contest with San Diego City.

Tips for Green Thumbs Help that Garden Grow

With produce prices on the increase and people getting interested in more "natural" foods, home planting has become popular.

For the amateur green thumb the Consumer Information Department of the Federal Government has published a variety of informational booklets including:

Growing Tomatoes in the Home Garden — tells how to choose a site, prepare the soil, and seeds and how to care for the plants. Copies are 25 cents from Consumer Information, Pueblo, Colorado 81009.

Growing Vegetables in the Home Garden — gives instructions for planting and growing all types of garden vegetables. Copies are 75 cents from Consumer Information.

Mini-gardens for Vegetables — This 12 page publication gives directions for growing vegetables in containers on balconies, windowsills and patios. It also is 25 cents from Consumer Information.

The Consumer Information Index lists many other gardening publications available from the government. The index is free.

Cousteau Film Set for Library

The film "Whales", one of the films in the series, "The Undersea World of Jacques Cousteau", will be shown at the Lemon Grove Library on April 25 at 7 p.m.

The 53 minute color film follows the Cousteau expedition as it observes the behavior of a group of finback whales, records the diving capabilities of sperm whales as well as studying the sounds they make and shows experiments conducted on the communication between killer whales.

The Lemon Grove Library is located at 7735 Pacific ave. The library has a new phone number: 463-9819. The film is presented free.

Proof Needed For Social Security Card

Starting April 15, people have been asked to prove their age, identity and citizenship when applying for a Social Security Number for the first time, according to Louise Miner, social security branch manager in La Mesa.

The proof is required under a 1972 amendment to the social security law. "The requirement affects native United States citizens, naturalized citizens, and aliens," Mrs. Miner said.

People can apply for a social security number by writing or visiting any social security office. Application forms are available at social security offices and post offices.

"Age can usually be proved with a birth or baptismal certificate," Mrs. Miner said. "Identity can generally be proved with a driver's license or similar evidence — preferably something that carries your signature."

People born in the United States can usually establish citizenship with the same papers they use to prove their age and identity, she said.

Aliens applying for the first time are required to submit one of the following — an Alien Registration Receipt Card, an Arrival-Departure Record, or a Non-resident Alien Border Crossing Card for Canada or Mexico or other evidence of lawful admission to the United States.

"Aliens without permission to work in the United States can only be issued social security numbers for tax returns, school records, bank accounts, or similar purposes not related to work and earnings," Mrs. Miner said.

United States citizens born in a foreign country are required to submit one of the following to get a social security number — a certificate of naturalization or citizenship, a United States passport, a citizen identification card from the U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Service, or a report of birth from a U. S. State Department consulate.

The proof requirement is intended to help prevent people from obtaining more than one social security number or obtaining or using a social security card under a false identity, Mrs. Miner said.

A fine of up to $1,000, imprisonment of up to one year, or both, may be imposed for fraudulent use of genuine or fake social security numbers to hide true identity or to get benefits from Federally funded programs.

"Your social security number is yours alone and remains the same for life," Mrs. Miner said. "You build retirement, disability, survivors, and Medicare protection for yourself and your family by work and earnings credited to your social security number. Using more than one number could mean you are not getting full credit, which could adversely affect your social security payments in the future."

For more information about applying for a social security number, call 293-5550.

Waldie and Hafif Slap Campaign Spending

Congressman Jerry Waldie and consumer advocate Herb Hafif have joined in a series of press conferences throughout the state "to warn the Democratic Party against a severe political backlash if it does not immediately and forthrightly deal with the issues of campaign financing and spending.".

Noting that about $7 million is expected to be spent on the June 4 gubernatorial primary, both candidates flatly declared that "campaign spending is threatening to run amuck in the Democratic Party."

Grossmont Board Turns Down Faculty Increase

Very little supporting information and uncertain budget were the reasons given when Grossmont College Board members turned down a request for 13 new certified faculty members at their meeting Tuesday night.

The recommendation that the new personnel be hired was made by the college administration. It would have a cost of about $180,000.

Trudy Hill, college vice president said that 13 positions were requested after the administration had studied the 23 requests that had come in from the different college departments.

Dr. Paul Epler, a trustee, said that the Board must be provided with more information for decisions or the Board will become "just a rubber stamp for administration."

Local Man Wins National Award For Teaching Dealers About Service

A Casa de Oro man has been cited for contributing to the development of the automotive retail business.

C. P. "Jack" Williams of 10032 Casa Nueva st., was recently awarded a plaque, the first ever made to anyone in his profession.

The presentation was "for contribution to the automotive industry through determination, dedication, knowledge and hard work.

"For leadership talents, professional integrity and respect for sound business principles in influencing others to believe in (the automotive service) business.

"For unselfish participation and contribution to community, state and national programs."

The presentation was made recently at the National Auto Dealers Association convention in Las Vegas before more than 800 of its 27,000 members.

The award was made by the Automotive Organization Team — a group which is comprised of men who have devoted their lives to the development of the automotive service business.

When Williams sold his successful Ford dealership in Houston in 1940 and retired, his customer loyalty record was so good that he gave up retirement to teach other dealers of the merits of good service and the benefits therefrom. That made him a consultant.

Then the National Auto Dealers Assn. talked him into joining their group to convince dealers in that association of the benefits of his "service housekeeping principles."

NADA was convinced that dealers could maintain loyalty of current customers and attract new ones if a high standard of service could be maintained.

"Automotive service people did not always view their customers as seriously as they do now," he said. "The main reason my program was instituted was to change that image. I recruited several other automotive people who had successfully followed my formula when I was a self-employed consultant. NADA asked me to teach management technique to their members. I accepted! That's how the Automotive Organization Team was formed.

Today, when a motorist gets follow up calls and communications from his dealer, and his service needs are handled in hours instead of weeks, part of the credit should be given to Jack Williams.

He, according to NADA is father of the concerned service motorists receive from their favorite dealer today.

Williams' name will be entered this year in the ATO Hall of Fame at Midland, Michigan which is on the campus of Northwood Institute for "making history in the industry."

Not bad for a fellow of 72.

SC1stCal Income Up

Southern California First National Corporation reports a 24% increase in net income per share for the first quarter, ended March 31.

The San Diego-based, one-bank holding company earned 31 cents per share of common stock for the quarter compared to 25 cents one year ago.

Comparable dollar earnings were $1,134,000 on March 31, 1974, versus $947,000 in 1973.

A regular cash quarterly dividend of 17½ cents per share will be paid on May 1 to shareholders of record on April 19.

In Uniform

John E. Finley

Sergeant John E. Finley, son of retired Navy Chief Petty Officer and Mrs. Kenneth J. Finley of 9127 Rosedale dr., Spring Valley, is a member of a Thailand based squadron which has earned the U. S. Air Force Outstanding Unit Award for the fifth time.

Sergeant Finley is assigned to Nakhon Phanom Royal Thai Air Force Base as a communications specialist with the 6994th Security Squadron which received the award for over-all professionalism and performance in support of operations in Southeast Asia from July 1, 1972 through June 1973.

The sergeant will wear a distinctive service ribbon to mark his affiliation with the unit.

Michael G. Donnelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Donnelly, 2441 Central ave., Spring Valley, has been promoted to staff sergeant in the U. S. Air Force.

Michael G. Donnelly

Sergeant Donnelly is a communications analysis specialist with a unit of the USAF Security Service at Iraklion Air Station, Crete.

A graduate in 1967 from Mount Miguel High School, he attended Grossmont College in El Cajon.

Kash O. Bell

Private Kash O. Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry D. Bell, 4111 N. Bonita st., Spring Valley, received a parachutist badge upon completion of the three week airborne course at the U. S. Army Infantry School, Ft. Benning, Georgia.

During the first week of training, he underwent a rigorous physical training program and received instructions in the theory of parachuting. The second week tested his ability through jumps from the 34-foot and 250 foot towers. The final week he was required to perform five static line parachute jumps.

Walk-a-thon Saturday

Final preparations have been made for the March of Dimes Walkathon from El Cajon to Lakeside Saturday morning.

Money from this charity function will help support March of Dimes research and medical service programs, in addition to educational activities and community service projects.

There are two ways to help, either by serving as a sponsor or by walking. A walkathon sponsor pledges a specific contribution to the March of Dimes for each mile walked.

Stickels Named Aztec Fundraiser

Dave Stickels, member of the class of 1971 of S.D. State University, has been appointed chairman of the Aztec Club Fund Raising drive.

Stickels is a 24-year old marketing representative of IBM's data processing department. His appointment was announced by Dan Dierdorff, Aztec club president who said the club was fortunate to acquire a person of Stickels' business background and dedication.

"The anual fund drive is essential to keep athletics at a high level at State," Dierdorff said.

The goal for the coming year is $200,000. Last year the fund reached $140,000.

Evel Knievel In Farewell Jump Sunday

Orange County International Raceway will present the farewell performance of motorcycle stunt rider Evel Knievel Saturday.

The dashing daredevil's last Southern California appearance will supplement a bulging drag race program headlined by 240-mile per hour Top Fuel Dragsters.

Evel will again leap across the cabs of ten Mack diesel trucks; a feat which cost the caped hero a broken back when last attempted. Still preparing the untested rocket motorcycle which will hopefully catapult Knievel across Idaho's Snake River Canyon on his celebrated retirement jump this summer, he has called upon the trusty XR-750 Harley-Davidson for the weekend's exhibition at OCIR.

Evel's final Southland performance, slated to begin promptly at 8 p.m., is sandwiched between a professional drag racing program which features four fuel-burning dragsters in round-robin competition. Raceway record holder James Warren of Bakersfield will accept the challenge of local Top Fuel stalwarts to a "Five Second Showdown" which begins at 7 p.m. Appearing are Dwight Salisbury, Don Enriquez and Larry Dixon; driver of the "Real Don Steele" entry, the world's quickest and fastest Chevrolet.

OCIR, located just opposit Lion Country Safari in East Irvine, is easily accessible from anywhere in the Southland via either the San Diego or the Santa Ana Freeway.

Gilbertmen Gird For Red Black Game May 4

The San Diego State football team resumed spring football drills after a week off for Easter Vacation.

Claude Gilbert's team will practice 3-5 Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday with scrimmage at 7 p.m. Friday night. All practice sessions are in Aztec Bowl.

Next week the Aztecs practice Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday and then host the annual Red-Black Game on Saturday May 4 at 7:30 p.m. in Aztec Bowl.

Tickets for the Red-Black Game may be obtained from the Aztec Center Ticket Office on the San Diego State campus or by phone from the Aztec Club at 286-6444. Prices are $2 for adults and 50 cents for students.

The Red-Black Game will offer San Diego State fans their first chance to see new quarterback Craig Penrose and an outstanding group of junior college transfers including Greg Boyd, Mau Kalati, Mel Jacobs, Terry White, Ed Kertel, Mike Gilbert, Dana White and Kevin Feeney.

Aztecs to Face Fading UP Team

U. of Pacific will provide the opposition for San Diego State this week as the PCAA baseball race heads into its third week.

Pacific, 14-11 overall and 3-5 in the conference, will be at Smith Field for a 3 p.m. game Friday and a doubleheader starting at noon on Saturday.

State swept a four game conference series against UC Santa Barbara last week to run its record to 26-17 overall and 6-2 in the PCAA. The 6-2 is good for second place in the conference, one-half game behind Fresno State which has an 8-3 mark. Los Angeles is in 3rd place and Pacific is in fifth. Pacific dropped a three game weekend series to Fresno State by scores of 1-0, 5-3 and 12-5.
